Re: Employees of Northrop Grumman Corporation Political Action Committee
(ENGPAC), Identification Number C00088591

Dear Mr. Andre':

This letter is in furtherance of our recent telephone discussion and responds to your letters dated April 19, 1995 pertaining to the June, July and August Monthly Reports and the Year End Report for the above referenced committee. This letter confirms that you have removed the letters from the public file and that they were sent in error.

As we discussed, Vought PAC became affiliated with ENGPAC on November 7, 1994. The June, July and August Monthly Reports related to information that transpired prior to the affiliation of the two PACs. Since the transactions you referred to in your letters were made during the time frame when the PACs were not affiliated, no corrective action is necessary.

On the Year End Report, ENGPAC reported that it had made a $5,000 contribution to Ted Stevens for the 1996 general election. When Vought PAC became affiliated with ENGPAC, Vought supplied ENGPAC a list of all of the contributions it had made. Vought advised ENGPAC that its contributions were made for the next elections in which the candidates it supported were involved. Thus, the August 5, 1994 contribution to Ted Stevens should have been designated for the 1996 primary election.

On Vought's FEC 3X, the general election box was checked. However, if you review the Vought reports, you will note that the general election box was checked for all contributions it made. Ted Stevens reported the Vought contribution in support of the primary. Therefore, ENGPAC concluded that it could make the $5,000 contribution for the 1996 general election. In our telephone discussion, you stated that you accepted that explanation, and that the contribution to Ted Stevens would not be considered in excess of the limits. As a result, the committee does not need to take any corrective action.

Should you have additional questions, please feel free to correspond with Daralyn E. Reed, ENGPAC Treasurer, or me.

Sincerely,

Cary Davidson
ENGPAC Assistant Treasurer
